COMMENT

Subject

New rules governing petitions for Executive clemency

Date

September 13, 1983

To

Fred F. Fielding
Counsel to the President

From

David C. Stephenson
Acting Pardon Attorney

On May 5, 1983 President Reagan approved a revision of the rules governing petitions for pardon and other forms of Executive clemency, the first revision since 1962. The regulations governing petitions for Executive clemency describe the procedures involved in petitioning the President for Executive clemency and the responsibility of the Attorney General in investigating each applicant for clemency and advising the President as to the proper disposition of each application. The new rules simplify and update clemency procedures, authorize the Attorney General to delegate his responsibility in clemency matters, lengthen the eligibility waiting period for pardon applicants to a minimum of five years, with a minimum of seven required for more serious crimes, increase the categories of crimes requiring the longer eligibility waiting period, and broaden the discretionary authority to release clemency records in the public interest. A new section describes the nature and effect of the regulations.

Two copies of the new rules are attached. The rules will be published in the next revision of the Code of Federal Regulations at 28 CFR 1.1 et seq. In the interim, additional copies may be requested by calling the Office of the Pardon Attorney at 492-5910.

RULES GOVERNING PETITIONS FOR EXECUTIVE CLEMENCY

United States Department of Justice

WASHINGTON, D.C.

PART I—EXECUTIVE CLEMENCY

Sec.

- 1.1 Submission of petition; form to be used; contents of petition.
- 1.2 Eligibility for filing petition for pardon.
- 1.3 Eligibility for filing petition for commutation of sentence.
- 1.4 Offenses against the laws of possessions or territories of the United States.
- 1.5 Disclosure of files.
- 1.6 Consideration of petitions; recommendations to the President.
- 1.7 Notification of grant of clemency.
- 1.8 Notification of denial of clemency.
- 1.9 Delegation of authority.
- 1.10 Advisory nature of regulations.

Authority: U.S. Const., Art. II, Sec. 2, and authority of the President as Chief Executive.

§ 1.1 Submission of petition; form to be used; contents of petition.

Persons seeking Executive clemency by pardon, reprieve, commutation of sentence or remission of fine shall execute formal petitions therefor. The petitions shall be addressed to the President of the United States and shall be submitted to the Pardon Attorney, Department of Justice, Washington, D.C. 20530, except for petitions relating to military offenses. Petitions and other required forms may be obtained from the Pardon Attorney. Petition forms for commutation of sentence also may be obtained from the wardens of Federal penal institutions. A petitioner applying for Executive clemency with respect to military offenses should submit his petition directly to the Secretary of the military department which had original jurisdiction over the court-martial trial and conviction of the petitioner. In such instance, a form furnished by the Pardon Attorney may be used but should be modified to meet the needs of the particular case. Each petition for Executive clemency should include the information required in the form prescribed by the Attorney General.

§ 1.2 Eligibility for filing petition for pardon.

No petition for pardon should be filed until the expiration of a waiting period of at least five years subsequent to the date of the release of the petitioner from confinement or, in case no prison sentence was imposed, until the expiration of a period of at least five years subsequent to the date of the conviction of the petitioner. In some cases, such as those involving violent crimes, violation of narcotics laws, gun control laws, income tax laws, perjury, violation of public trust involving personal dishonesty, fraud involving substantial sums of money, violations involving organized crime, or other crimes of a serious nature, no petition should be filed until the expiration of a waiting period of seven years. The waiting period may be waived in cases of aliens seeking a pardon to avert deportation. Generally, no petition should be submitted by a person who is on probation or parole.

§ 1.3 Eligibility for filing petition for commutation of sentence.

A petition for commutation of sentence, including remission of fine, should be filed only if no other form of relief is available, such as from a court or the United States Parole Commission, or if unusual circumstances exist, such as critical illness, severity of sentence, ineligibility for parole, or meritorious service rendered by the petitioner.

§ 1.4 Offenses against the laws of possessions or territories of the United States.

Petitions for Executive clemency shall relate only to violations of laws of the United States. Petitions relating to violations of laws of the possessions of the United States or territories subject to the jurisdiction thereof should be submitted to the appropriate official or agency of the possession or territory concerned.

§ 1.5 Disclosure of files.

Petitions, reports, memoranda and communications submitted or furnished in connection with the consideration of a petition for Executive clemency generally shall be available only to the officials concerned with the consideration of the petition. However, they may be made available for inspection, in whole or in part, when in the judgment of the Attorney General their disclosure is required by law or the ends of justice.

§ 1.6 Consideration of petitions; recommendations to the President.

(a) Upon receipt of a petition for Executive clemency the Attorney General shall cause such investigation to be made of the matter as he may deem necessary and appropriate, using the services of, or obtaining reports from, appropriate officials and agencies of the Government, including the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

(b) The Attorney General shall review each petition and all pertinent information developed by the investigation and shall determine whether the request for clemency is of sufficient merit to warrant favorable action by the President. He shall report in writing his recommendation to the President, stating whether in his judgment the President should grant or deny the petition.

§ 1.7 Notification of grant of clemency.

When a petition for pardon is granted, the petitioner or his attorney shall be notified of such action and the warrant of pardon shall be mailed to the petitioner. When commutation of sentence is granted, the petitioner shall be notified of such action and the warrant of commutation shall be sent to the petitioner through the officer in charge of his place of confinement, or directly to the petitioner if he is on parole.

§ 1.8 Notification of denial of clemency.

(a) Whenever the President notifies the Attorney General that he is denying a request for clemency, the Attorney General shall so advise the petitioner and close the case.

(b) Whenever the Attorney General recommends that the President deny a request for clemency and the President does not disapprove or take other action with respect to that adverse recommendation within 30 days after the date of its submission to him, it shall be presumed that the President concurs in that adverse recommendation of the Attorney General, and the Attorney General shall so advise the petitioner and close the case.

§ 1.9 Delegation of authority.

The Attorney General may delegate to any officer of the Department of Justice any of his duties or responsibilities under §§ 1.1 through 1.8.

§ 1.10 Advisory nature of regulations.

The regulations contained in this part are advisory only and for the internal guidance of Department of Justice personnel. They create no enforceable rights in persons applying for Executive clemency, nor do they restrict the authority granted to the President under Article II, Section 2 of the Constitution.

Dear Mr. Goldsmith:

Your letter of October 22, 1984 to White House Chief of Staff James A. Baker, III has been referred to me for consideration and response. In that letter you objected to your return to custody after cooperation with the United States Attorney's Office, and noted that you had an application pending before Acting Pardon Attorney David C. Stephenson.

I hope you will understand that it would be inappropriate for the White House to interfere in any way with the decision of the Parole Commission, or to interfere with the processing of your application before the Acting Pardon Attorney. I have, however, referred your correspondence to the Department of Justice, for whatever action that Department considers appropriate.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. McCall:

I am writing on behalf of Mr. Reginald Goldsmith, an inmate of the Federal Correctional Institute in Tallahassee, Florida.

While I do not know Mr. Goldsmith personally, he has written to me concerning his present incarceration for parole violation. It is my understanding that he was serving this term when, in November, 1982, he was granted a Bond at the request of the U.S. Attorney for the Western District of Tennessee. Subsequently, he assisted the Drug Enforcement Agency in bringing forth the indictments and ultimate convictions of nineteen individuals involved in three major international drug operations. In May, 1984, when Mr. Goldsmith's Bond was revoked, the U.S. Attorney urged his release in light of his cooperation; however, the Parole Commission denied the request.

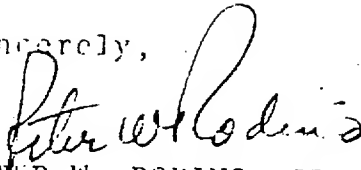

I would strongly recommend that the Commission review its decision to incarcerate Mr. Goldsmith. The community at large owes a great debt to him for his aid in penetrating three separate major drug organizations. Moreover, he exposed himself to considerable risk during both the time he spent working on these important cases, and the time he spent in necessary seclusion after his cooperation became public. One must conclude that Mr. Goldsmith's experience was at least equivalent to and probably far more severe than any incarceration could have been.

Thank you in advance for your very careful consideration of this matter. I would appreciate being kept apprised of Mr. Goldsmith's situation.
